

Erik Egerer – Chief Financial Officer

Erik is the head of all financial activities within ArtiFlex, managing external financing relationships. He provides leadership, mentorship, and support to the accounting, finance, and IT teams. He focuses on aligning the finance and IT team to be outstanding partners, so they can provide the necessary analytics, support, and timely information that the company needs to be effective and efficient.

With over 20 years of experience, Erik has held several prominent roles including being a M&A Advisor for several firms, owning his own practice as an advisor, and spending 3 years as Director of Finance with another automotive supplier. Throughout his career, he has assisted with the completion of numerous strategic transactions, like selling companies, buying other companies, and funding these transactions.

Major Accomplishments and Milestones:

- BBA with a major in Finance from Miami University in 2000
- MBA degree from Michigan State 2013
- Advisor of many transactions that established family's generational wealth
- Globally managing a distressed company to keep them afloat throughout COVID