

Armand Massary – Vice President of Manufacturing

Armand oversees P&L responsibilities for the ArtiFlex Manufacturing Group, which operates in Wooster and Clyde, Ohio. He leads a team dedicated to innovation, problem-solving, and building strong partnerships, with a keen focus on safety, quality, and continuous operational improvement. With over 30 years of experience in the automotive and tire manufacturing industry, Armand has held leadership positions at Eaton, ITW, Schaeffler Inc. (LuK), and Steelastic/RMS.

Major Accomplishments and Milestones:

- Organized the technical merger of Wolverine Worldwide with PLG within 9 months.
- Defended several vulnerabilities and breaches over very long weekends.
- Created a 100% redundant cluster to host 50 international websites for B2B solutions.
- Merged 10 different international IT Operations into one shared service unit.
- Little League coach and contributor
- Member of the Rockford Jaycee's – served as President and Secretary

